

Rift Valley Women's Group

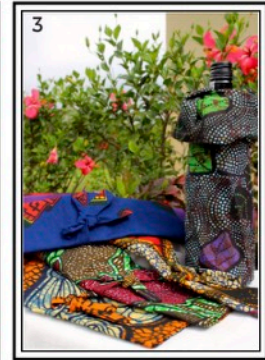

The Rift Valley Women's Group (RVWG) is a Tanzanian Children's Fund Microfinance initiative aimed at empowering women in the Oldeani ward of northern Tanzania by providing them with skills-based trainings and economic opportunities. By providing these women with materials, trainings, business development and support, they are now independently providing for their families, investing in their children's education, and opening small shops in their communities. The members of RVWG offer a variety of beaded, woven, sewn and other beautiful handicraft products. Wholesale prices are fair and equitable for our clients and suggested retail prices are competitive and interesting to you the retailer.

All of these products were created with care by members of RVWG!
